

Flagship Construction & Building Envelope Restoration Ltd.

Industry Partners in Construction Excellence

British Columbia's residential and commercial construction industry is both growing and changing, with a marketplace filled with many competitors, new environmental regulations, and a shift in consumer taste. With so many moving parts, the challenge for customers to build their lasting dream home is great.

As part of our longstanding dedication to building quality homes, we are keen to forming industry partners to ensure we have the key relationships to cover all aspects of architecture, engineering, interior design, and realty services to help our customers build their homes with confidence.

With over 30 years of experience in BC, Flagship Construction & Building Envelope Restoration Ltd. is the ideal partner, bringing its construction expertise and knowledge to any residential or commercial project large or small. We are HPO Licensed, insured, and members of the Greater Vancouver Home Builder's Association.
